

Sheriff's Department SPOTLIGHT

February 2008

“New Look” of the Sheriff’s Office

In the photo is Gun Plain Township Contract Deputy Don Roberts, modeling the new uniform that has been adopted by the Sheriff’s Office. You’ll notice it is quite a bit different from what you’re used to seeing, not only in color, but with a more traditional type of hat. This uniform was selected by a committee that took months to look at all aspects of the uniform, choosing long-wearing fabrics that wouldn’t show soil easily, and wouldn’t snag when tracking through thick underbrush, yet would still look crisp and professional. The “campaign hat” is the type normally worn by Sheriff’s deputies nationwide and which has been adopted as a part of the new uniform. Not all deputies will be wearing the new uniform right away. They will be phased in over a period of several years, as the old uniforms wear out.
